

PechaKucha

PechaKucha (Japanese: ペチャクチャ, IPA: [petɕa kuɕɕa],[1] chit-chat) is a storytelling format in which a presenter shows 20 slides for 20 seconds of commentary each. At a PechaKucha Night, individuals gather at a venue to share personal presentations about their work. The PechaKucha format can be used, for example, in business presentations to clients or staff, as well as in education settings.

(...) In 2004, cities in Europe began hosting PK Nights and days, followed over the years by hundreds of others.[4][5] As of April 2019, PKNs had been held in more than 1,142 cities worldwide. More than 3 million people have attended a PK Night. [<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/PechaKucha>]

The Challenge:

Your challenge is to present your own PechaKucha : either 10 slides in 10 or 20 seconds each or

20 slides in 10 or 20 seconds each

You are going to be on your own, the aim is to be as clear, fluent, as understandable as possible, using simple and intelligible language. You can be funny, accessible and take the time to tell your special story in a special way.

The subject:

This is an opportunity for you to share something personal and unique with us, and to share with an audience something that matters to you.

Here are some ideas, but, as usual, you can choose an idea which is not in my list!

- _ A favorite childhood recipe (or your own current favorite dish)
- _ Your vision of the Future (your hopes/ dreams...)
- _ The best football (basketball, tennis, hockey, rugby...) match ever
- _ The perfect book (saga...)
- _ Your favorite actor/ actress
- _ A manga to discover
- _ A country/ city/ place to visit
- _ The best year (day/ month) of your life so far
- _ Your favorite artist (singer/ painter/ designer...)
- _ Your tips to succeed
- _ Your way to meditate
- _ Your professional project
- _ Your favorite dishes
- _ Your favorite sports
- _ The places you would like to travel to one day
- _ Your favorite day of the week
- _ Your favorite game/ game character/ game franchise
- _ Your favorite superhero etc....

Preparing your PechaKucha:

In order to prepare your presentation, please listen to the following YouTube video, in which the speaker gives you her top tips to make the best PechaKucha possible!

Once you have listened to her tips, you can start preparing...And to begin, don't forget her tip n° 3 and her tip n°5 ...

Don't forget to give me your subject as soon as possible, so I can be sure that you are ready to start working...

Everyone has to be ready for Monday 15th of May, or the 22nd of May (depending on your last TP). We can listen to everyone in 1 TP hour and this can be ready in 1TP hour as well, so basically...No extra work at home for you! If you are efficient in class...;)
